

Firefighters also have to take care of the things they use to fight a fire, like the fire truck. They scrub and rinse and wax until their trucks shine.

A long time ago there were no engines, so horses pulled the fire trucks. The firefighters had to clean the horse stalls, too!