Two Steves

When he was a teenager, Steve made a new friend.

His friend's name was also Steve. But many people called him "Woz."

The two friends liked working with computers.

Both Steves liked computers.

In his first job, Steve worked on video games.

Then he and Woz started a company.

They called it Apple Computer.

They worked in Steve's parents' garage.

Apple Computer started in this garage.
