On the Train

King's Cross Station

Joanne grew up. One day, she was on a train.

She had an idea! She started thinking about a young boy.

The boy's name was Harry Potter. He was a wizard.

More and more ideas came into Joanne's head.

She did not have a pen! She could not write her ideas down.

So Joanne sat and dreamed of Harry's story.
