

The night before the play,
Glen did not want to go to sleep.
Dad said, "Close your eyes.
I will sit here and hold your hand."

The next day Glen's mom helped him put on his elf suit. She gave him a lucky penny to slip in his shoe.