

Flags are flown to show pride in your country and your state. People often fly flags to celebrate holidays. Flags can be many different colors. The colors usually have a special meaning.

But in this store, nothing is more important than the red, white, and blue flag. Even the Flag Lady's dog wears the colors of the flag.