

Pigs know how to cool down when it is too hot. They roll in clean water or mud.

Pigs dig with their snouts. They can be trained to find food that grows under the ground.