

In the spring puffins come on the land to build their nests.

Their nest is in a burrow. They use their beaks to dig and their webbed feet to shovel.