Read each sentence on pages 4–9.

Each sentence tells about a picture in the PICTURE DICTIONARY.

Find the picture.

Write the word under the picture on the lines after the sentence.

The PICTURE DICTIONARY will help you with other new words, too.

1. We go in and out of this at home.

2. They make cars stop on red.

3. This is a home for horses and sheep.

4. We put them on to help us see.

5. A shoe is put on it.

6. He looks funny and is funny.

Look at each row of pictures.
Think how the first two pictures go together.
Find a picture at the bottom of the page that will go with the picture in the box above in the same way.

Put the picture or its number inside the box where it belongs.
