How On Our Way to Reading—Newcomers Can Help

The Challenge:

Your English learners may not have been exposed to concepts and structures that shape reading instruction such as colors, shapes, letters, and numbers, along with knowledge of the alphabet. Without these fundamental skills, students could be delayed in becoming successful readers and reaching their full reading potential.

Help is Here:

On Our Way to Reading—Newcomers helps English learners build foundational reading skills, giving them a strong start to language acquisition and confidence to grow on. Students develop print, phonological, and phonemic awareness through activities that incorporate listening, reading, writing, and speaking.

Promote writing development with the printed student books, a necessary element for building foundational skills. Use the eBooks for blended and distance learning models of instruction.

Introduce the Color: Red

Use the following activities to introduce the color red.

- Name students in your classroom who are wearing something red, and ask them to stand up. Then ask the rest of the class to tell what color these students are all wearing. When they say red, have the students identify the red items of clothing.
- Ask the students to think of some things to eat that are red. Suggestions might include apples, strawberries, watermelon, and tomatoes and tomato products (ketchup, spaghetti sauce, pizza). Then ask students to name other things that are red, such as fire trucks, stoplights, and roses. Use the K-3 Vocabulary Picture Card for red and any cards that show red items. Look for ways to add to the students' English vocabularies. Add red to the Word Wall.

Explore the Color: Red

- Tell the students to look around the classroom for objects that are red. Ask volunteers to go to the object they found, point to it, and name it. Correct pronunciation as needed.
- Have the students cut pictures of red things from old magazines and glue them to red construction paper. Display them on a bulletin board labeled RED.
- Let students use red finger paint to draw something they like to eat, such as pizza or a plate of spaghetti or a fruit. When the paintings are dry, students can add crayon decorations using other colors.
- Encourage students to investigate the books in your classroom to find those with red covers.

Identify the color red on the page. Discuss the picture on the page with the students. Be sure each student can name the objects shown in the picture. Hold up a red crayon. Ask the students to find their red crayons and hold them up.

Say: Color the apple and the strawberries red. Draw a red flower on the plant.

Let students complete the page independently.

Enrich the Lesson

Use a puzzle with large pieces of a red object, such as a fire truck or a pizza. Or make a puzzle by cutting a laminated picture of a red object into puzzle pieces. Hide these puzzle pieces around the room so that at least a part of the piece is visible. Tell students how many pieces there are, and let them collect all the pieces. Then have them assemble the puzzle and identify the object and its color.

Our ABCs: Student Book

Our ABCs is a manuscript handwriting book that teaches students to print the letters of the alphabet and to recognize the sequence of the letters.

Review Letters Nn-Tt

- Spend some time reviewing the letters of the alphabet through the letter T. The goal is that students will be able to identify the capital and lowercase letters A–Z, in or out of alphabetical sequence. You may want to use the appropriate alphabet cards from the K–3 Vocabulary Picture Cards. You could also use letter tiles to play games involving letter identification.
- Review the handwriting strokes for each letter by various means, such as “finger-writing,” sand writing and finger painting. Students could also trace letters cut from felt or sandpaper. Always have students repeat the directions they have learned as they make the strokes for each letter.

Say: Look at the letters across the top of the page.

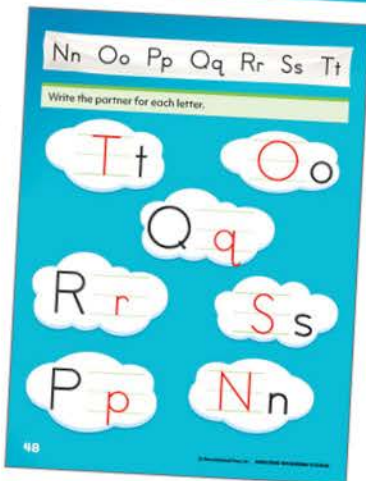

Have the students identify each of the letters at the top of the page. Review the difference between the capital letters and the lowercase letters.

Say: Write the partner for each letter.

Be sure students understand that if the capital form of the letter is given, they should print the lowercase letter on the line, and if the lowercase letter is given, they should print the capital letter. This page and the next may be used for informal assessment.

Support Students

Let students who are having difficulty with the small muscle control involved in printing letters on paper practice printing large letters on the board or on an erasable marker board.

Long Vowel Rhymes

Student Book Page 30

Practice Rhyming Words

Use these verses to review long vowel rhyming words. Read them aloud, pausing at the end of every other line to let students supply that rhyming word.

Way down South where bananas grow,
A fly stepped on an elephant's _____. (toe)
The elephant cried with tears in his eyes,
"Go pick on someone your own _____. (size)

Way down South where flowers smell sweet,
A spider stepped on an elephant's _____. (feet)
The elephant started to moan and groan,
"I think you've broken every _____. (bone)

Way down South by the coral sea,
An elephant was stung by a _____. (bee)
The elephant started to cry and wail,
"Someone has stabbed me with a _____. (nail)

Explore Rhyming Words

- Place these K-3 Vocabulary Picture Cards in a bag or a hat: vine, gate, goat, kite, queen, toe, cheese, whale, and wheel. Have students take turns choosing a card, saying the picture word, and calling on a classmate to say a word that rhymes with the picture word.
- Ask students to listen as you say three words and repeat the two words that rhyme. Use these sets and others.

whale/tail/tail	gate/goat/wait
cheese/please/check	place/face/play
mile/mine/smile	green/knee/mean

Complete Page 30

Say: Look at the picture at the top of the page. This picture shows a goat in a boat. The words goat and boat rhyme.

Long Vowel Rhymes

30

Say: Say the three picture names in each box. Circle the two pictures whose names rhyme.

Help students identify the three pictures in each box. Have students complete the page independently.

Support Students

Work individually with students who need extra support. Have students say these words after you; elongate the long vowel sounds: face, feet, eyes, and toes. Then present rhyming words, and have students choose the key word that rhymes. Use these words and others: space, chase, sweet, neat, ties, pies, rose, clothes.

Sounds and Letters: Student Book

With Sounds and Letters, students begin to recognize the sounds associated with consonants and are introduced to important phonemic awareness skills, such as blending, addition, deletion, and substitution.

Letter Sound s /s/

Introduce Letter Sound s /s/

To introduce the sound /s/ and the capital and lowercase letters, use the K-3 Vocabulary Picture Card for the letter s and other pictures of objects that begin with /s/, such as the K-3 Vocabulary Picture Cards for star, sled, soap, sock, spoon, swim, and spider.

- Show the S s K-3 Vocabulary Picture Card [sun], and ask students what the name of the picture is. Have several students say the word sun, and say it yourself emphasizing the initial sound /s/. Show other s-word pictures, and follow the same procedure.
- Ask any students whose first names begin with /s/ to say their names for the class.
- Show the letters S and s on the back of the appropriate K-3 Vocabulary Picture Card. Explain that these two letters both stand for the first sound in sun. Have students find S and s in their sets of alphabet cards.

Explore Letter Sound s /s/

- Ask students to listen as you say sun and another word. If both words begin with the same sound, students should repeat the words. If the words do not begin with the same sound, students should remain silent. Use these word pairs and others.

sun/sad	sun/bus	sun/soap
sun/sing	sun/sit	sun/safe
sun/run	sun/sick	sun/nine

- Say sets of three words—two that begin with /s/ and one that doesn't. Ask students to listen and repeat the two words that begin with /s/.

sink/swim/float	chair/sit/stand

Help students identify the pictures on the page. Direct students to the bottom of the page.

Have students complete the page independently.

Enrich the Lesson

Have students create an S s page for their personal Picture/Word Books. Have them write the letters S and s on the top of a sheet of paper. Using old magazines, have them find pictures for words that begin with /s/ to paste on their S s names. You may need to guide students who find words that begin with a soft c, such as circle.

More Sounds and Letters: Student Book

In More Sounds and Letters, practice focuses on sounds represented by consonants, consonant blends, and consonant digraphs and helps students gain recognition skills for the sounds associated with consonants.

Practice Blending Phonemes

Use this rhyme, sung to the tune of "Frère Jacques," to give students practice in blending phonemes.

What's this word?
What's this word?
/t/ /l/ /p/

Do it to your jeans,
It happens when you tear them.
/t/ /l/ /p/

What's the word?
After you have sung the song, have students repeat the sounds and then blend them to say the word. Repeat the process with these words.

... /n/ /a/ /n/

Fill it up with people.
Drive it to the movies.
/n/ /a/ /n/...

... /f/ /o/ /g/

Find it in the forest.
Put it on the campfire.
/f/ /o/ /g/...

Explore Blending Phonemes

- Display the following K-3 Vocabulary Picture Cards on the board: cat, red, sun, hen, bug, pig, jet, dog, nut, and fan. Underneath each one, write the word with space between the letters. Ask students what the first card shows. Then point to the segmented word underneath the picture. Say each letter sound in order, and then blend the sounds together. Have students repeat the process with you for each picture.

Complete Page 41

Show students that under each picture are sets of letters. There are two choices for each sound in the word. Students should say the word to themselves and then draw lines connecting the letters that represent the sounds in the word.

Say: Look at the first picture. It shows milk. Listen to the sounds in the word milk: /m/ /l/ /k/...milk. Decide which letter makes each sound.

Guide students in recognizing which letter makes each sound in milk. Then have students write the word below the picture. Allow students to complete the rest of the page independently.

Enrich the Lesson

Write a few unfamiliar words on the board, one letter at a time. Say the sound of each letter as you write it. Then model blending the first word, and have students M... Some words you might use include vat, rib, g... kin
