

Instructional Features

Level
F

TEAM is designed for use by ELL teachers and by general education teachers as a support for ELLs in their academic classrooms. The student books are centered around common themes and topics for each grade level and reflect instructional design that asks students to be responsible for their own learning. Each unit has an academic standards focus, a reading strategy, a language focus, and a writing focus, as shown in the chart below:

Unit/Lesson/Theme	Standards Focus	Reading Strategy	Language Focus	Writing Focus
UNIT 1: Acts of Nature
LESSON 1: Burning Mountain	Science Social Studies	Main Idea and Details	Suffixes	News Story
LESSON 2: Hurricane Warning	Science Social Studies	Cause and Effect	Multiple-Meaning Words	Persuasive Email
LESSON 3: The Dark Sun	Language Arts Science	Elements of a Play	Adverbs	Character Analysis
UNIT 2: We the People
LESSON 4: The Road to Citizenship	Language Arts Social Studies	Main Idea	Root Words	Personal Narrative
LESSON 5: A Song for the Nation	Social Studies	Sequence	Irregular Past-Tense Verbs	Summary
LESSON 6: Casting Your Vote	Language Arts Social Studies	Point of View	Subject and Object Pronouns	Speech
UNIT 3: Our Global Community
LESSON 7: Danger in the Water	Science Social Studies	Cause and Effect	Linking Verbs	Compare and Contrast
LESSON 8: Reduce, Reuse, and Recycle	Mathematics Science Social Studies	Compare and Contrast	Homophones	Editorial
LESSON 9: Doing My Part	Language Arts Social Studies	Inferences and Conclusions	Direct Quotations	Email
UNIT 4: Exploring New Lands
LESSON 10: Setting Sail Across America	Social Studies	Facts and Opinions	Synonyms	Letter
LESSON 11: Mission to Mars	Mathematics Science	Predictions	Antonyms	Sequence
LESSON 12: Imaginary Worlds	Language Arts	Analyzing Language	Action and Helping Verbs	Writing a Story

Instructional Features

Level
G

TEAM is designed for use by ELL teachers and by general education teachers as a support for ELLs in their academic classrooms. The student books are centered around common themes and topics for each grade level and reflect instructional design that asks students to be responsible for their own learning. Each unit has an academic standards focus, a reading strategy, a language focus, and a writing focus, as shown in the chart below:

Unit/Lesson/Theme	Standards Focus	Reading Strategy	Language Focus	Writing Focus
UNIT 1: Earth's Resources
LESSON 1: Disappearing Forests	Science Social Studies	Main Idea	Root Words	Persuasive Email
LESSON 2: The Environmental Movement	Science Social Studies	Sequence	Suffixes	Opinion
LESSON 3: From the Earth	Language Arts	Characters	Abstract Nouns	Journal Entry
UNIT 2: Beyond Earth
LESSON 4: Connected Through Space and Time	Science	Details	Subject-Verb Agreement	Compare and Contrast
LESSON 5: Cleaning Up Space	Science	Cause and Effect	Adjectives	Persuasive Paragraph
LESSON 6: Another World	Language Arts Science	Parts of a Story	Homophones	Journal Entry
UNIT 3: Obstacles and Achievements
LESSON 7: New Ideas, New Inventions	Science Social Studies	Predictions	Irregular Past-Tense Verbs	News Story
LESSON 8: Wonders of the World	Mathematics Social Studies	Facts and Opinions	Multiple-Meaning Words	How-To
LESSON 9: Racing for the Prize	Language Arts	Author's Purpose	Pronouns and Antecedents	Compare and Contrast
UNIT 4: On the Job
LESSON 10: Artists of All Kinds	Social Studies	Inferences and Conclusions	Antonyms	Opinion
LESSON 11: Into the Fire	Social Studies	Compare and Contrast	Prepositional Phrases	Informational
LESSON 12: Strength and Character	Language Arts	Analyzing Language	Uncountable Nouns	Summary

Instructional Features

Level

H

TEAM is designed for use by ELL teachers and by general education teachers as a support for ELLs in their academic classrooms. The student books are centered around common themes and topics for each grade level and reflect instructional design that asks students to be responsible for their own learning. Each unit has an academic standards focus, a reading strategy, a language focus, and a writing focus, as shown in the chart below:

Unit/Lesson/Theme	Standards Focus	Reading Strategy	Language Focus	Writing Focus
UNIT 1: Discoveries
LESSON 1: The Father of TV	Social Studies	Predictions	Synonyms	Opinion
LESSON 2: Navigating New Places	Social Studies	Main Idea	Complex Sentences	Journal Entry
LESSON 3: Loyalty and Love	Language Arts	Analyze Characters	Pronouns	Personal Reflection
UNIT 2: By the Numbers
LESSON 4: The Basics of Bar Codes	Mathematics Science	Sequence	Suffixes	Summary
LESSON 5: A Secret Communication	Mathematics Social Studies	Recalling Details	Confusing Words	Analysis
LESSON 6: How Much?	Language Arts	Characterization	Adverbs	Compare and Contrast
UNIT 3: Choices
LESSON 7: The Science of Weather Forecasting	Science	Inferences	Prefixes	Descriptive Paragraph
LESSON 8: What Will You Eat?	Science Social Studies	Cause and Effect	Colons and Semicolons	Opinion
LESSON 9: Thinking About the Future	Language Arts	Theme	Coordinating and Subordinate Conjunctions	Personal Narrative
UNIT 4: Fun and Entertainment
LESSON 10: The Ride of Your Life	Mathematics Science	Facts and Opinions	Multiple-Meaning Words	Informational Paragraph
LESSON 11: The Ultimate Movie Experience	Science Social Studies	Compare and Contrast	Roots and Root Words	Movie Review
LESSON 12: Game Time	Language Arts	Figurative Language	Relative Pronouns	How-To